

Name _____

Easter Eggs and Animal Rescues

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The magical Easter eggs brought joy, compassion, and a sense of responsibility to the children. They also transformed Willowville into a town known for its kindness and care for animals.
2. The Easter Enchanter likely chose the children because they demonstrated kindness and a willingness to care for the animals. They were compassionate and loving, making them suitable for this responsibility.
3. Sunny developed beautiful songs, Nutty became skilled at acrobatics, Cotton was the snuggliest bunny, and Speedy brought cuteness to the garden. These qualities enhanced the children's lives by providing them with companionship, joy, and a sense of wonder.
4. Acts of kindness and compassion are essential in building strong and caring communities. They create bonds, foster empathy, and lead to a sense of unity and well-being among community members. In the story, the children's compassion for the animals transformed Willowville into a place known for its kindness and care.

