Faith and the Magical Garden

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Lily believed in the power of positivity and magic because she had a positive outlook on life, which made her see the potential for beauty and wonder even in an abandoned garden. She also had a strong sense of imagination, which allowed her to see possibilities beyond what others might see as ordinary.
2. In my life, a challenge I faced was learning to ride a bike. I had to show determination by practicing every day, even when I fell down. I had unwavering faith that I could learn because I saw other kids riding bikes. Eventually, I overcame it by not giving up, and with practice, I became a confident bike rider.
3. The villagers probably felt amazed, happy, and grateful when they saw the garden transformed. They might have experienced wonder at the beauty of the garden, joy in having a new place to enjoy, and gratitude towards Lily for her efforts.
4. Unwavering faith and determination can benefit individuals by helping them overcome challenges, achieve their goals, and build self-confidence. In communities, these qualities can bring people together to work towards a common goal, create positive change, and make the community a better place.
