

Name _____

Carter G. Woodson: Father of Black History

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is Carter G. Woodson often referred to as?
 - a) Father of the Nation
 - b) Father of Black History
 - c) Father of Inventions
 - d) Father of Science

2. What did Carter G. Woodson establish in 1926 to celebrate African American history?
 - a) African American Heritage Month
 - b) Negro History Week
 - c) Civil Rights Month
 - d) Slavery Remembrance Month

3. What motivated Carter G. Woodson to advocate for equal rights and recognition of African American history?
 - a) A desire for personal wealth
 - b) Discrimination and prejudice he faced
 - c) A love for sports
 - d) A desire to become a famous musician

4. What educational achievement did Carter G. Woodson reach, despite his challenging upbringing?
 - a) He earned a Bachelor's degree.
 - b) He earned a Master's degree.
 - c) He earned a Ph.D. from Harvard University.
 - d) He dropped out of school.

5. What is the modern-day version of Negro History Week established by Carter G. Woodson?
 - a) Black History Month
 - b) African American History Year
 - c) Slavery Awareness Week
 - d) Civil Rights Celebration Month

