

Name _____

The Barber of the Forest

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you were a participant in "The Great Inflatable Tree Knockdown Race." What kind of hilarious costume would you wear, and how would you try to knock down the inflatable trees?
2. Why do you think the town of Arborville decided to add a comical twist to their Arbor Day celebration? How did it affect the atmosphere of the event?
3. How does laughter and humor bring people together, as shown in the story?
4. What lesson can we learn from the participants in the race who embraced their comical mishaps and had a great time?

