

Name _____

Groundhog's Great Getaway

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Groundhog decided to take a vacation to explore the world outside his burrow. How can traveling and experiencing new places and cultures broaden a person's perspective and understanding of the world?
2. During his vacation, Groundhog met a wise old owl who shared tales of far-off places. How can interactions with others, especially those with different experiences and knowledge, enrich our own lives and learning?
3. Groundhog's vacation allowed him to appreciate the beauty of nature and the wonders of the world. How can spending time in nature and exploring different environments benefit our well-being and appreciation of the natural world?
4. Groundhog returned to his burrow with a transformed perspective on life. How can taking a break or going on a vacation impact one's outlook, creativity, and ability to face challenges?

