

Name _____

Snowed In on the 100th Day

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss the importance of creativity and adaptability in making the most of unexpected situations, like being snowed in at school. How did the characters in the story demonstrate these qualities?
2. Reflect on the role of community and friendship in turning an ordinary snow day into a memorable celebration. How did the students and teachers come together to make the most of their situation?
3. Share your own ideas for a unique and fun celebration if you were trapped inside your school during a snowstorm. What activities, events, or themes would you choose, and why?
4. How do you think the experience of being snowed in at school during the 100th day might have strengthened the bonds between the characters in the story? How can shared challenges bring people closer together?

