

Demonstratives

DIRECTIONS: Rewrite the second sentence of each pair to clarify the idea referred to by the demonstrative pronoun. You may use this, that, these, or those as an adjective (followed by a noun or noun phrase). Rewrite only the second sentence.

1. Joe asked Mary to loan him a pencil. This is what he usually needs.

2. The boys went outside to play. They got dirty. This is what usually happens.

3. I got rid of my old car. That was a lot of trouble.

4. Every room is filled with people. I don't know most of these.
