

Singular Possessive Pronouns

A possessive pronoun takes the place of words that indicate ownership. Like all pronouns, possessive pronouns can be singular or plural. The singular possessive pronouns are:

mine

yours

hers

his

its theirs (sometimes)

DIRECTIONS: Complete each sentence with the appropriate singular possessive pronoun. Use the words in italics as clues.

1. Timothy's That sweater is _____.
2. Martin's This car is _____.
3. an unknown person's I think this seat is _____.
4. person spoken to I believe this is _____.
5. Kaylee's This necklace is _____.
6. the car's This is _____ tire.
7. the person speaking's I wish this dog were _____.
8. the phone This is _____ case.
9. the crock pot This is _____ lid.

