

Expanding Sentences

DIRECTIONS: Expand each sentence with a subordinate clause that begins with the subordinating conjunction provided.

1. We adopted this dog. (as soon as)

2. My mother will be here. (though)

3. Chris comes home tomorrow. (if)

5. The afternoon should be hot. (after)

6. I will do a few things. (since)

7. Ryan will be disappointed. (even though)

8. I will have the party catered. (once)

9. It will be a quiet evening. (while)

