

Name _____

A Journalist's Encounter with Dr. King

Multiple Choice Questions

1. In what year does the story take place?
 - a) 1950
 - b) 1963
 - c) 1975
 - d) 1988

2. Why was the young journalist excited about the interview with Dr. King?
 - a) They wanted to learn more about the Civil Rights Movement.
 - b) It was a sunny morning.
 - c) They had prepared a list of questions.
 - d) Dr. King had a warm smile.

3. What was Dr. King's dream for the world?
 - a) A world without journalists
 - b) A world where people of all races were treated equally
 - c) A world with more adversity and threats
 - d) A world without love and understanding

4. What inspired Dr. King's commitment to nonviolence?
 - a) Figures like Mahatma Gandhi
 - b) Adversity and threats
 - c) The Birmingham Campaign
 - d) A dream of hatred and division

5. How did the journalist feel after the interview with Dr. King?
 - a) Tired and unmotivated
 - b) Moved and with a renewed sense of purpose
 - c) Angry and frustrated
 - d) Disinterested and bored

