

Name _____

Jo's Battle

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was Jo's biggest dream?
 - a) To get married and have children
 - b) To become a famous writer
 - c) To travel the world with her sisters
 - d) To work for Aunt March

2. Why did Jo struggle with society's expectations?
 - a) She wanted to be a writer instead of following the traditional path for women.
 - b) She wanted to be the quietest and most gentle sister.
 - c) She thought women should never get married.
 - d) She wanted to be rich and famous.

3. What lesson did Jo learn from Meg's decision to marry?
 - a) That all women must get married to be happy
 - b) That Meg was making a mistake
 - c) That there are different ways for women to find happiness
 - d) That she should also get married right away

4. What was one challenge Jo faced as a writer?
 - a) People refused to read books written by women.
 - b) Her sisters didn't want her to write.
 - c) She couldn't find any ideas for her stories.
 - d) She only wrote stories for children.

5. What does Jo's story show about women in the 19th century?
 - a) Women had no choices in life.
 - b) Writing was the only job women could do.
 - c) Only wealthy women could follow their dreams.
 - d) Women were beginning to fight for independence and success.

