

Name _____

Chilling Shadows

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How does the weather contribute to the eerie mood of the story?
  - a) The bright sunlight makes everything seem normal.
  - b) The rain and wind create a sense of unease and danger.
  - c) The warm weather makes the home feel safe.
  - d) The snowstorm makes it hard to see outside.

2. What happens immediately after Mr. White makes his first wish?
  - a) The room grows cold, and an unsettling feeling fills the air.
  - b) The monkey's paw disappears.
  - c) A knock at the door startles the family.
  - d) Herbert laughs at the idea of magic.

3. How does the setting change after Herbert's death?
  - a) The house becomes warmer and brighter.
  - b) The storm outside disappears, and everything feels safe.
  - c) The home feels colder and lifeless, reflecting the family's grief.
  - d) The family decides to move away to escape the bad luck.

4. What effect does the dim candlelight have during the final scene?
  - a) It makes the room feel warm and inviting.
  - b) It adds to the sense of fear and makes the space feel smaller.
  - c) It shows that the danger is over.
  - d) It makes it easier for Mrs. White to see outside.

5. What is one way the house itself becomes a source of fear?
  - a) The fire spreads and burns the house down.
  - b) The house falls apart during the storm.
  - c) The family gets lost inside the house.
  - d) The walls seem to close in as tension builds.

