

ANSWERS

1. Juxtaposition means intentionally placing two things next to or near each other in order to show their similarities and their differences.

2. To develop a character by contrasting them with another character

To emphasize nuances of a trait or concept

To link ideas that might seem unrelated

For humor or to create absurdity

To indicate that one element or idea is better than the other

3. answers will vary