

ANSWERS

A fact is something that can be proven.

A written work that is factual is called nonfiction.

Fiction is imaginary.

A written work that is fiction is called fiction, story, novel, etc.

Nonfiction includes statistics, figures, numbers, quotations, references to sources of information, etc.

Works of fiction have:

plot

setting

characters

theme

narrative perspective