

Name _____

Easter in the Wild West

Short Answer Key

1. The Easter Bunny made a grand entrance on horseback, wearing a cowboy hat and a vest full of colorful eggs.
2. Children could participate in the Stick Pony Rodeo, Easter egg hunts, and stick pony races around barrels, among other activities.
3. Eggs were placed on fence posts, hay bales, and even atop swinging saloon doors.
4. Lulu the Cowgirl was crowned the champion, and the prize was the coveted Easter Egg Trophy, a golden egg mounted on a wooden stand.
5. The people of Dusty Gulch ended their Easter celebration by gathering around a campfire, singing cowboy songs, and sharing tales of their adventures.

