

Name _____

Groundhog's Great Getaway

Short Answer Key

1. Groundhog decided to take a vacation to explore the world outside his burrow and experience new adventures.
2. Groundhog packed essentials like a warm scarf and some snacks in his bag for his vacation.
3. Groundhog visited the forest, met woodland creatures, explored a meadow, and ventured to places like deserts, polar regions, and rainforests. He experienced diverse landscapes and encountered different creatures.
4. Groundhog returned to his burrow with a heart full of stories and memories, feeling transformed by his vacation experiences.
5. Groundhog's vacation broadened his horizons and helped him appreciate the wonders of the world. It changed his perspective on life by making him realize there was more to life than just predicting the weather.

