

Name _____

Snowed In on the 100th Day

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Creativity and adaptability were crucial in turning an ordinary snow day into a memorable celebration. The characters used their unique talents and resources to create a fun atmosphere despite being trapped inside. Their ability to adapt to the situation and find joy in unexpected circumstances enhanced their experience.
2. The story highlights the power of community and friendship. The students and teachers came together, supported each other, and shared laughter and experiences, strengthening their bonds. Shared challenges can indeed bring people closer together, fostering a sense of unity and camaraderie.
3. Answers will vary, but students may come up with creative ideas like organizing a winter-themed talent show, hosting a snow sculpture contest, or arranging indoor sports and games. The choice of activities would depend on their interests and the resources available.
4. Being snowed in at school likely strengthened the bonds between the characters by fostering a sense of unity and shared experience. They learned the value of working together, supporting each other, and finding joy in unexpected situations. Such shared challenges can create lasting memories and friendships.

