

Name _____

Martin's Vision for Today

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What were some of Martin Luther King Jr.'s principles mentioned in the story?
 - A. Greed and selfishness
 - B. Love, unity, and progress
 - C. Isolation and division

2. What did Martin envision for education in his dream for today's world?
 - A. Education focused only on academic subjects
 - B. Education that emphasized empathy, compassion, and accessibility
 - C. Education limited to certain economic circumstances

3. In Martin's vision, what did he believe was a powerful tool for creating positive change?
 - A. Isolation
 - B. Collective action
 - C. Individualism

4. What kind of leaders did Martin hope to see in his dream for today's world?
 - A. Leaders who were self-serving
 - B. Leaders who prioritized division and conflict
 - C. Leaders who were role models and served with integrity and compassion

5. What did Martin emphasize as a means of achieving social justice in his vision?
 - A. Violent resistance
 - B. Nonviolent resistance
 - C. Isolation and apathy

