

Name _____

Cultural Exchange Friends

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How did living in each other's homes and immersing themselves in each other's cultures strengthen Mia and Raj's friendship? What did they learn from this experience?
2. Reflect on a time when you learned something valuable about another culture. How did it change your perspective, and what did you gain from the experience?
3. Why do you think Mia and Raj decided to host a joint cultural exchange festival at the end of their exchange? How did this event represent the themes of their story?
4. What message does the story convey about the importance of cultural exchange, friendship, and embracing diversity in our global society?

