

Name _____

The Groundhog Council's Secret Meeting

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. The Groundhog Council holds secret meetings to discuss important matters affecting the groundhog community. How can open and informed discussions benefit decision-making in any group or organization?
2. Gideon, the council president, plays a significant role in leading the meetings and emphasizing unity and cooperation. How can effective leadership positively impact the outcomes of group meetings and decision-making processes?
3. The Groundhog Council discussed the construction of a new burrow near the meadow during their meeting. Why is it important for organizations and communities to make well-considered decisions about infrastructure and resource allocation?
4. How can the annual meetings of the Groundhog Council contribute to the overall well-being and prosperity of the groundhog community in the forest?

