The 100th-Day Oracle

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss the impact of Alex's ability to predict the future on his classmates' day and their reactions to it. How did it change the way they approached challenges and surprises?
2. Reflect on the final prediction made by Alex about the 101st day and beyond. What message was he trying to convey, and how did it inspire his classmates?
3. Share your thoughts on the idea that knowing the future can take away the element of surprise and make life predictable. Do you agree or disagree with this notion? Why or why not?
4. If you suddenly gained the ability to predict the future, how would you use it to help others, and what challenges might you encounter in doing so?
