

Name _____

Valentina Tereshkova: The First Woman in Space

Short Answer Key

1. Valentina Tereshkova was born in 1937 in the Soviet Union.
2. Valentina Tereshkova became the first woman in space on June 16, 1963. She orbited the Earth 48 times during her mission.
3. Valentina Tereshkova faced challenges such as rigorous training, physical and psychological tests, and the risks associated with space travel.
4. The significance of Valentina Tereshkova's mission lies in breaking gender barriers, showing that women could excel in space exploration. Her journey symbolized progress in gender equality.
5. Valentina Tereshkova continues to inspire people, especially young girls, to pursue careers in science and space exploration through her bravery and dedication.

