

Name _____

Martin's Vision for Today

Short Answer Key

1. Some key principles and values cherished by Martin Luther King Jr. in his vision for today's world included love, unity, progress, and equality.
2. Martin envisioned education as a tool for change that emphasized empathy, compassion, and accessibility for all, regardless of their economic circumstances.
3. Martin believed that communities should come together to address pressing issues such as climate change and poverty.
4. Martin hoped to see leaders who were role models, serving with integrity and compassion, and inspiring others to lead with kindness and a sense of duty to the greater good.
5. Martin emphasized nonviolent resistance as a means of achieving social justice in his vision for today's world.

