

Name _____

Aquatic Adventures: Bastille Day Under the Sea

Short Answer Key

1. The Deep Sea Bandits were underwater pirates who planned to steal the precious pearls that adorned Aquatopia's coral castle during the Bastille Day celebration.
2. Captain Finn and his crew recruited an army of underwater creatures, including dolphins and octopuses, to form a protective barrier around the coral castle. They also used various tactics, including water cannons, ink clouds, and sea urchin spines, to battle the bandits.
3. The marine explorers outsmarted the bandits and entangled their pirate ship in a giant kelp net, preventing them from stealing the pearls.
4. Aquatopia celebrated Bastille Day with a spectacular underwater fireworks display, lighting up the ocean depths.

