

Name _____

The Great Arbor Day Tree Swap

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary. Example response: When I saw the hilarious mix-up of trees on Arbor Day, I burst into laughter. It was such a funny and unexpected sight that I couldn't stop smiling all day.
2. The friends decided to swap the trees as a prank to add humor and entertainment to Arbor Day celebrations. They wanted to make the day unforgettable for the townspeople.
3. The tree swapping prank brought the community closer together by creating laughter and a shared experience that people talked about for years. It fostered a sense of unity and camaraderie.
4. One possible lesson is that humor and lightheartedness can bring people together and make even the most ordinary days extraordinary. It encourages us to find joy in unexpected moments and embrace the fun side of life.

