The Wishing Flag Adventure

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Mia's wish on the flag led her to the Enchanted Forest, where she had unexpected adventures with talking animals and magical creatures. She learned valuable lessons about friendship, courage, and the magic of nature, and she discovered that the flag could grant one more wish.
2. One possible challenge could be that they had to help a group of fairies find their lost magic dust. They solved it by following clues and working together to retrieve the dust from a clever squirrel who had taken it.
3. Answers will vary, but students might wish for an exciting adventure, a special talent, the ability to help others, or a chance to visit a far-off place.
4. Mia's grandmother likely reacted with amazement and wonder, and she might have been proud of Mia's bravery and resourcefulness. If I were Mia's grandmother, I would be thrilled and would want to hear all the details of her adventure.
