

Name _____

Hanukkah Heroes vs. Holiday Havoc

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The Hanukkah Heroes' powers are related to Hanukkah traditions to emphasize the importance of preserving and celebrating these traditions. For example, Menorah Man's power connects to lighting the menorah, Dreidel Dynamo's power relates to spinning dreidels, and so on.
2. One example of the Hanukkah Heroes using their wits to outsmart the villains is when Gelt Guardian showered golden coins to blind the villains, giving the heroes an advantage in the battle.
3. The people of the city reacted by thanking the Hanukkah Heroes for protecting the holiday spirit because they recognized the heroes' efforts in preserving their traditions and bringing joy to the city.
4. The most important lesson the story teaches about Hanukkah is that it is a time of unity, miracles, and the power of hope. This lesson is important because it reminds us to cherish our traditions and the positive values they represent.

