

Name _____

A Different Choice

Short Answer Key

1. The Hen shares the bread the first time because she wants to be kind and hopes her friends will learn to help.
2. The animals refuse to help again, thinking they will still get a reward.
3. The animals made the mistake of believing they would get bread without doing any work.
4. By not sharing the second loaf, the Hen teaches that fairness means earning rewards through effort.
5. Answers will vary, but students should explain their reasoning about fairness and responsibility.

