

Name _____

The Robot Revolution: How AI is Shaping Our Job Market

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How has AI technology been used to automate jobs traditionally done by humans?
 - a) By creating robots that can think and feel
 - b) By developing machines that can perform repetitive tasks
 - c) By replacing all human workers with AI
 - d) By training humans to work alongside AI

2. What is one potential benefit of using AI in the job market, as mentioned in the essay?
 - a) Increased job security for all workers
 - b) More leisure time for everyone
 - c) Improved efficiency and productivity
 - d) Reduced need for education and training

3. What does the essay suggest about the future of jobs in creative fields like music composition?
 - a) AI will never be able to create music as well as humans.
 - b) AI will completely replace human musicians and composers.
 - c) AI can assist human musicians in generating new ideas.
 - d) AI has no role to play in creative industries.

4. According to the essay, what should workers do to adapt to the changing job market influenced by AI?
 - a) Resist using AI in their workplaces
 - b) Quit their jobs to avoid competition with machines
 - c) Embrace new skills and continue learning
 - d) Complain to their employers about AI technology

5. What is the main message of the essay regarding the impact of AI on the job market?
 - a) AI will eliminate all jobs, leading to unemployment.
 - b) AI will make all workers obsolete, and there is no hope.
 - c) AI will change the types of jobs available, requiring adaptation.
 - d) AI will have no impact on the job market.

