

Name _____

A Modern Fairy Tale

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How is Charlie and the Chocolate Factory similar to a fairy tale?
 - a) It has a talking animal as the main character
 - b) It has a fairy granting wishes
 - c) It takes place in a faraway castle
 - d) It includes a magical setting and teaches moral lessons

2. What lesson does Charlie's story share with classic fairy tales?
 - a) Bad behavior is rewarded with gold
 - b) Kind and humble people are often rewarded in the end
 - c) Greedy people always become kings and queens
 - d) Magic is the only way to solve problems

3. How does the chocolate factory resemble a fairy tale setting?
 - a) It is a simple, ordinary candy shop
 - b) It has magical rooms, surprises, and strange creatures
 - c) It is a boring workplace with regular candy machines
 - d) It is located in a haunted forest

4. What makes Charlie and the Chocolate Factory different from classic fairy tales?
 - a) It uses humor instead of scary punishments
 - b) It has a wicked witch as the main villain
 - c) The Oompa-Loompas act as fairy godmothers
 - d) It takes place in a medieval castle

5. What role do the Oompa-Loompas' songs play in the story?
 - a) They warn children about magic spells
 - b) They make fun of Willy Wonka's candy inventions
 - c) They turn each child's mistake into a humorous lesson
 - d) They tell stories about other fairy tale characters

