

Name _____

How Does an Aardvark Reproduce?

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Aardvarks stay alone to avoid competition for food and ensure survival.
2. A long gestation period allows the cub to develop fully before birth, increasing survival chances.
3. Young aardvarks might struggle with finding food and avoiding predators.
4. Having one cub allows the mother to give full attention and care to ensure survival.

