

Name _____

The Absurdity Olympics

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The Absurdity Olympics brought the school community together, created a sense of fun and camaraderie, and left lasting memories for both students and teachers.
2. Mr. Anderson wanted to encourage creativity and teamwork among the students and create an atmosphere of fun and silliness at the school.
3. The various clubs demonstrated their creativity and dedication by coming up with imaginative and absurd challenges, showcasing their commitment to the competition.
4. Embracing absurdity and silliness can bring joy, laughter, and unity to people's lives. It encourages creativity, thinking outside the box, and not taking oneself too seriously, which are essential qualities for a well-rounded and enjoyable life.

