Journey to the Underworld's Abyss

In a realm of shadows, where darkness dwells,
A tale unfolds, of mysterious spells.
To the depths of the underworld, we shall go,
Where ancient myths and legends sow.
Beyond the mortal world, into the abyss,
A hero embarks on a fateful miss.
To rescue a loved one from the grasp of fate,
Through perilous journeys and realms innate.
Through the River Styx, dark and wide,
The hero and guide begin their ride.
Charon, the ferryman, with coin in hand,
Guides them to Hades' distant land.
Past Cerberus, the guardian beast,
They journey deeper, the darkest feast.
To the palace of Hades, cold and grim,
Where the fate of souls is ruled by him.
With courage and wit, they face the king,
Seeking the freedom that love can bring.
Challenges await, in the underworld's lair,
As they confront trials, dangers, and despair.
Will they succeed and break fate's chain,
Or be forever bound in sorrow's reign?
In the depths of the underworld, they strive,
To bring their loved one back alive.
