

Name _____

Famous Pennsylvanians: A Legacy of Achievers

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Benjamin Franklin was a polymath who made significant contributions as an author, printer, inventor, scientist, and diplomat. He played a pivotal role in the founding of the United States, including his involvement in drafting the U.S. Constitution.
2. Fred Rogers was a beloved television personality who promoted kindness, understanding, and education through "Mister Rogers' Neighborhood." His impact on children's television programming is profound, as he created a safe and educational space for young viewers.
3. Mary Cassatt was associated with Impressionist painting, known for her depictions of mothers and children with emotional depth. Her works added new dimensions to the world of art by focusing on everyday life and the intimate bonds between families.
4. Andrew Carnegie's philanthropic efforts included funding libraries, schools, and other public institutions. His charitable giving left a lasting legacy of educational and cultural enrichment across the United States.

