

Name _____

Actions and Consequences

Short Answer Key

1. Augustus Gloop's fate reflects his personality because he is greedy and always eating, so his greed leads him to fall into the chocolate river.
2. Veruca Salt's story teaches that being spoiled and demanding too much can lead to negative consequences.
3. Violet ignores Willy Wonka's warning because she is competitive and wants to be the first to try the new gum.
4. Mike Teavee's experience suggests that too much screen time and ignoring others can have negative effects.
5. Charlie is different because he is polite, listens to instructions, and does not act greedy or selfishly.

