

Name _____

Stepping into the Spotlight: A Day in the Life of an Actor/Actress

Short Answer Key

1. The primary skill required for actors/actresses is acting.
2. Many actors/actresses start their journey to become professionals in local theater productions or acting schools.
3. The heart of the acting profession is portraying different characters convincingly.
4. A typical evening activity for theater actors/actresses is performing for a live audience.
5. Some challenges that actors/actresses might face in their careers include rejections during auditions and maintaining a work-life balance due to irregular hours.

