

Name _____

The Divine Touch: The Creation of Adam by Michelangelo

Short Answer

1. Describe the setting and background of "The Creation of Adam," and explain how it enhances the painting's theme.
2. What is the theological significance of the touch between God and Adam's fingertips, and why is it a central element in the painting?
3. How does the depiction of God and Adam in "The Creation of Adam" convey the idea of human potential and the divine connection?
4. Discuss the mystery and interpretations surrounding the shapes and figures in the painting, including the suggestion of a brain.
5. Why is "The Creation of Adam" considered one of Michelangelo's greatest achievements and a masterpiece of Western art?

