

Name _____

The Divine Touch: The Creation of Adam by Michelangelo

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you are Adam in the painting. Write a diary entry describing your thoughts and emotions at the moment of creation and your encounter with God.
2. If you could have a conversation with Michelangelo about "The Creation of Adam," what questions would you ask him, and why?
3. Create a short story or poem inspired by "The Creation of Adam," exploring the themes of divine creation, human potential, and the gift of life.
4. Discuss the enduring impact and influence of "The Creation of Adam" on art, literature, and popular culture. Provide examples to support your points.

