

Name _____

Penguin Power: Unique Adaptations for Survival

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one function of penguins' waterproof feathers?
 - a) To attract mates
 - b) To regulate body temperature
 - c) To prevent water from reaching the skin
 - d) To help them fly

2. How do penguins reduce drag in the water?
 - a) By having long, floppy wings
 - b) By having short, stiff wings
 - c) By using fishing nets
 - d) By releasing air bubbles from their feathers

3. How do penguins stay submerged for extended periods when diving?
 - a) By holding their breath
 - b) By using snorkels
 - c) By storing oxygen in their blood and muscles
 - d) By swimming slowly

4. What sense do penguins rely on to spot prey and predators?
 - a) Smell
 - b) Taste
 - c) Touch
 - d) Hearing

5. How do penguins conserve body heat in the harsh Antarctic winter?
 - a) By huddling together in large groups
 - b) By migrating to warmer climates
 - c) By flapping their wings
 - d) By eating high-energy foods

