

Name _____

Addiction and Recovery

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Who in the Thompson family was struggling with addiction?
 - a) John, the father
 - b) Emily, the youngest daughter
 - c) Sarah, the eldest daughter
 - d) Lisa, the mother

2. How did the family initially react to Sarah's addiction?
 - a) They disowned her.
 - b) They turned a blind eye.
 - c) They watched helplessly and decided to confront the issue.
 - d) They sent her away to a rehab facility.

3. What decision did the Thompson family make regarding Sarah's addiction?
 - a) To ignore it and hope it would go away.
 - b) To disown her.
 - c) To support her through her journey to recovery.
 - d) To send her to a faraway boarding school.

4. What did the family do to help Sarah in her recovery journey?
 - a) They abandoned her.
 - b) They researched rehab facilities and attended counseling sessions.
 - c) They isolated her from the family.
 - d) They blamed her for her addiction.

5. What was the ultimate message of the story "Addiction and Recovery"?
 - a) Addiction is a battle that can only be won alone.
 - b) The power of love, hope, and the unbreakable bonds of family in overcoming addiction.
 - c) Families should disown members struggling with addiction.
 - d) Addiction is a battle that can only be won with medical treatment.

