

Name _____

Blooming Benefits: The Advantages of Growing Annual Plants

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one advantage of growing annual plants?
 - A) They provide continuous color throughout the growing season.
 - B) They only bloom once.
 - C) They require extensive maintenance.
 - D) They take years to establish.

2. Why are annual plants considered ideal for filling in gaps in the garden?
 - A) They grow slowly.
 - B) They require full shade.
 - C) They offer instant gratification.
 - D) They only bloom in spring.

3. What makes annual plants adaptable to various growing conditions?
 - A) They only grow in full sun.
 - B) They cannot tolerate any moisture.
 - C) They require constant watering.
 - D) They are drought-tolerant.

4. Why are annual plants considered low-maintenance?
 - A) They require daily pruning.
 - B) They complete their lifecycle within a single growing season.
 - C) They need frequent watering.
 - D) They attract pests.

5. How do annual plants contribute to supporting biodiversity?
 - A) They repel pollinators.
 - B) They require extensive maintenance.
 - C) They provide food and habitat for pollinators.
 - D) They only bloom in autumn.

