

Name _____

Seeds of Change: The Agricultural Revolution Unveiled

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What marked the beginning of the Agricultural Revolution?
 - A) The discovery of fire
 - B) The invention of the wheel
 - C) The cultivation of plants and domestication of animals
 - D) The construction of complex buildings

2. What were some of the key cereal grains cultivated during the Agricultural Revolution?
 - A) Corn and potatoes
 - B) Wheat, barley, and rice
 - C) Apples and oranges
 - D) Tomatoes and cucumbers

3. How did the cultivation of cereal grains impact human diets?
 - A) It led to a decline in food production.
 - B) It made food less reliable.
 - C) It provided staples for human diets and more reliable food production.
 - D) It encouraged nomadic lifestyles.

4. What was the significance of the domestication of animals during the Agricultural Revolution?
 - A) It had no impact on human societies.
 - B) It provided a reliable source of clothing.
 - C) It offered additional sources of food, clothing, and labor.
 - D) It led to a decline in population.

5. Why did the development of towns and cities become possible during the Agricultural Revolution?
 - A) Due to a decrease in population
 - B) Because people no longer needed to farm
 - C) As a result of surplus food storage and population growth
 - D) Because people became more nomadic

