

Name _____

Mexico's Dynamic Economy: From Agriculture to Manufacturing

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What are some of the key industries that contribute to Mexico's economy?

- a) Agriculture, manufacturing, tourism, and services
- b) Mining and construction
- c) Education and healthcare
- d) Transportation and energy

2. Which crop is a significant part of Mexico's agricultural production?

- a) Rice
- b) Wheat
- c) Corn
- d) Potatoes

3. What role do maquiladoras play in Mexico's economy?

- a) They are traditional Mexican markets.
- b) They produce agricultural goods.
- c) They are factories that assemble and produce goods, often for export.
- d) They are artisan workshops.

4. Which industry attracts foreign investments in Mexico?

- a) Agriculture
- b) Mining
- c) Manufacturing
- d) Healthcare

5. What contributes significantly to Mexico's revenue besides manufacturing?

- a) Agriculture
- b) Education
- c) Mining
- d) Tourism

