

Name _____

The Alien Exchange Student

Short Answer Questions Answers

1. Zog had green skin, three eyes, and tentacle-like limbs. He wore socks on his four tentacle-like limbs, and his attempts to fit in often resulted in comical mishaps.
2. Comical situations due to Zog's attempts to fit in included mistaking mashed potatoes for spaceship fuel, emitting high-pitched alien giggles during a history class, and creating abstract art with his tentacles during art class.
3. Zog's earnestness, curiosity, and unique perspective on life endeared him to the Millville residents. Despite his quirks, they appreciated his warmth and the laughter and wonder he brought to their lives.
4. Zog's departure marked the end of an unforgettable chapter in Millville's history. His impact on the town was profound, bringing laughter, wonder, and a sense of the extraordinary that would be remembered for years to come.
5. Zog's presence served as a reminder to embrace the extraordinary in life, to celebrate differences, and to find joy and wonder in unexpected places.

