

Name _____

Always Unique

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why is Stargirl still relevant to readers today?
 - a) It is based on a true story
 - b) It is about a famous celebrity
 - c) It teaches readers how to play the ukulele
 - d) It explores the importance of being yourself

2. What makes Stargirl different from the other students?
 - a) She follows all the school rules
 - b) She dresses and acts in unique ways
 - c) She tries to be the most popular student
 - d) She only talks to Leo

3. How does Leo feel about Stargirl's uniqueness?
 - a) He dislikes her from the beginning
 - b) He loves her but also wants her to fit in
 - c) He ignores her completely
 - d) He encourages her to be even more different

4. What happens when Stargirl tries to act "normal"?
 - a) She feels unhappy and loses her unique personality
 - b) She becomes more popular and makes many new friends
 - c) She enjoys being like everyone else
 - d) She moves to a new school

5. What is one lesson from Stargirl?
 - a) It is best to follow the crowd to be happy
 - b) People should change to make others like them
 - c) Being true to yourself is more important than fitting in
 - d) Popularity is the key to success

