Adventures in the Amazon

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary. (e.g., I would most like to see a jaguar because they are powerful and mysterious animals, and it would be amazing to see one in the wild.)
2. Answers may vary. (e.g., I see towering trees with leaves forming a canopy, colorful birds flying overhead, and the shimmering waters of the Amazon River. It makes me feel like I'm in a magical world.)
3. It's important to protect the Amazon Rainforest and its wildlife because it's a vital part of our planet's ecosystem, home to countless unique species, and helps regulate the Earth's climate.
4. If I met an indigenous tribe, I would feel curious and respectful. I would ask them about their customs, traditions, and how they have lived in harmony with the rainforest for generations.
