

Name _____

Amphibian Diversity: Exploring the Many Species of Frogs, Toads, and Salamanders

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What defines an amphibian?
 - a) Warm-blooded vertebrate
 - b) Lives only on land
 - c) Has feathers
 - d) Cold-blooded vertebrate

2. Which amphibian has the ability to vocalize?
 - a) Salamanders
 - b) Caecilians
 - c) Frogs
 - d) Toads

3. What distinguishes toads from frogs?
 - a) Dry, bumpy skin
 - b) Smooth, moist skin
 - c) Long bodies and tails
 - d) Ability to fly

4. Where are caecilians often found?
 - a) In trees
 - b) Burrowing underground
 - c) Swimming in ponds
 - d) Hopping on land

5. What is a common adaptation of many salamander species?
 - a) Ability to jump long distances
 - b) Regeneration of lost limbs
 - c) Ability to camouflage in water
 - d) Flight capability

