

Name _____

The Enchanted Amulet

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How do you think the legend of the enchanted amulet reflects the values and beliefs of the village and its connection to nature?
2. Discuss the transformation of Lily's character from the beginning of her quest to the end, considering the lessons she learned and the challenges she faced.
3. Why do you think Lily ultimately decided to use her wish for the benefit of the forest and its inhabitants? How does this decision resonate with the theme of empathy and selflessness in the story?
4. What do you believe the story is trying to convey about the balance between personal desires and the greater good of the natural world?

