

Name _____

Animal Breeders: Nurturing the Future Generations

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary role of an animal breeder?
 - a) Selling pet supplies
 - b) Painting animal portraits
 - c) Selecting and pairing animals to produce offspring with specific traits
 - d) Playing with animals all day

2. What type of education is typically required to become an animal breeder?
 - a) A degree in computer science
 - b) A degree in genetics or animal husbandry
 - c) No formal education is required
 - d) A degree in marine biology

3. Why is animal knowledge an important skill for animal breeders?
 - a) To compose music for animals
 - b) To design clothing for animals
 - c) To understand the genetics, behavior, and health of the animals they work with
 - d) To operate heavy machinery on a farm

4. What is one of the responsibilities of an animal breeder during pregnancy monitoring?
 - a) Painting animal shelters
 - b) Monitoring the health of expectant mothers and providing extra care
 - c) Selling pet toys
 - d) Writing poems about animals

5. Why is record-keeping an essential aspect of an animal breeder's work?
 - a) To create art inspired by animals
 - b) To compose music for animals
 - c) To track breeding histories, health records, and genetic data
 - d) To perform magic tricks with animals

