

Name _____

Nature's Bounty in Japan: A Look at its Diverse Animal and Plant Life

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Which famous Japanese flowers are celebrated during "sakura season"?
 - a) Orchids
 - b) Tulips
 - c) Cherry blossoms
 - d) Daffodils

2. What is the significance of bamboo in Japan?
 - a) It is a symbol of resilience and adaptability.
 - b) It is used exclusively for construction.
 - c) It is associated with bad luck.
 - d) It is a rare plant in Japan.

3. Which animal is known for its adaptation to cold climates and is often seen in hot springs during winter?
 - a) Japanese Macaque (Snow Monkey)
 - b) Tanuki (Japanese Raccoon Dog)
 - c) Japanese Giant Salamander
 - d) Japanese Serow

4. What does the red-crowned crane symbolize in Japanese culture?
 - a) Speed and agility
 - b) Longevity and fidelity
 - c) Bravery and strength
 - d) Wisdom and knowledge

5. What are some challenges that Japan faces in preserving its natural heritage?
 - a) Overpopulation of native species
 - b) Habitat loss and invasive species
 - c) Excessive protection of national parks
 - d) Lack of interest in conservation

